"THE TURTLE," NOW BEING PRO-DUCED IN NEW YORK.

"UNCLE TOM'S CABIN" TO-MORROW

This Version of Mrs. Stowe's Work said to Be Without Objectionable Vandeville Attractions.

This is a wicked world, and the theatri cal manager knows it. There are some who cry aloud for the elevation of the stage, and for the presentation of a bet class of plays. These would-be pub benefactors go about with a long face, A denounce those who cater to the usement-loving public, because the heatrical manager produces plays which not tend to better the morals of man-

However, the public generally gets just that its appetite craves, and it is not business of the servant to place bread water before his master, when the r demands wine. Just as soon as the it theatre-going public manifests the thest wish for a change of diet, then, al not before, will it be spread before

In bringing this strong anti-southern play to the Academy, Manager Leath does it more as a pleasure for curious theatregoers than for financial motives. There a great many persons who have never the play, and who have naturally their curiosity aroused by the many itter reproaches the play has met with mainly for such a class of the public that ates by a company that has been care iosen to give a finely-drawn poraval of the villainous and virtuous charthat go to make the woof of the Mesars, Barbour & Harkins have en careful to eliminate the odious fien seen in the barn-stormer's edition of the play, in their version, and have brought the play into the confines of five acts. The same company has recently presented the play at the Star Theatre, New York, and the Park Theatre, Philadelphia, and goes rom here to New Orleans for a long run

Dinna, the Queen of Dancers.

Never before in the history of vaude-villes in this city has the stage of that especial class of amusement supported ch an extravagant array of eminent artists, and a more brilliant combination will be seen in the Auditorium at Broad-Street Park this week. There is no idle jest of an humble minstrel in the assertion that Manager Leath has collected a company that is the peer of any that has been seen in this city at any resort in either variety or width talent or in the fancy salaries that are

After being re-moved to the St. Clair Hotel on Priday from the Old Dominion Hospital, where she recently underwent an operation for appendicitis, she yesterday suffered a re-lapse, and again lies in a critical condi-tion. So serious was her condition last evening that it was decided that as soon as a change for the better occurs she will be returned to the hospital,

THE Y. M. C. A. EVENING COLLEGE. It Will Open Monday, October 3d-

Large Classes Assured. That the Young Men's Christian Asso clation is rapidly becoming one of the leading educational institutions of our country is apparent to every thoughtful mind. The annual report, just issued by the International Committee, shows that during the past year 350 associations conducted 1,988 classes, in which 25,130 different students were enrolled. Of these students 3,720 were office men, 2,715 students, 3.381 clerks, 4,065 mechanics, and 3,761 gen-

From these facts it can readily be seen that the associations' night schools are lows: being largely patronized by the me-chanics as well as the clerks. Last year the Richmond association conducted ten This season the association has planned exhaustive study of the papers in the for sixteen senior classes, as follows: Dreyfus case has convinced me too fully at them, Commercial arithmetic on Tuesday and Friday nights, elementary and advanced book-keeping on Monday and Thursday nights, commercial law on Tuesday night, penmanship and spelling on Tuesday and Friday nights, stenography on Monday and Thursday nights, sign-writing on Friday night, telegraphy on Tuesday and Thursday nights. Arrangements are being completed for classes in English, mechanical drawing, vocal music, free-hand drawing, a'gebra, Spanish, German, and electricity. All these classes will be conducted, if there is sufficient demand, and young men interested should make the fact known promptly at the association building.

Membership in the association entitles as well as many other most valuable features. Students entering the different classes will be required to pay a small matriculation fee. Last year the enrol-ment at this school was almost 200, and many young men were unable to get in, ister of the Interior. many young men were unable to get in, having delayed entrance until the last moment. The secretaries will be at the association every day and night of this week to give information concerning these Four classes will be conducted for boys under 16 years of age, who are working during the day-viz.: Arithmetic, gram-mar, penmanship, and spelling. In addition to the educational class work, four educational clubs are promised the young men-viz.: Mandolin and Gultar, Current Topic, Camera, Senate. None but the best instructors will be engaged for these classes, and the instruction will be most thorough. The classes will continue from Monday, October 3d, until the third week in April, with the exception of two weeks during the Christmas season. The educational work of this worthy institution presents to hundreds of young men a rare opportunity for self-improvement, amid most congenial surroundings and for the formation of friendships that will be helpful and lifelong. One of the advantages of the Young Men's Christian Association school in this; that with the closing of the educational work in May the members who joined the association for the evening college have the privi-lege of the reading-room, library-, and amusement-room, as well as social features during the remainder of the year.

RETRIAL COMMISSION DECIDED ON.

Premier Brisson Greeted With Crie of "Vive la Revision," Showing That Popular Sentiment is Veering Toward Reopening of Case.

The council met at the Elysee Palace at 9:30 A. M., President Faure presiding. According to a semi-official note, the Minister of Justice said that after having examined the papers, he felt unable to de-cide upon the question of the proposed revision of the Dreyfus case until he had taken the opinion of a special commission of the Ministry of Justice. The Cabinet, thereupon, authorized the minister to summon a commission for the purpose.

ZURLINDEN'S SUCCESSOR. It is reported now that the portfolio of Minister for War will be offered to Gene-ral Le Brun or General de Freycinet, and that if they refuse to accept the office, M. CHANGINE WAR MINISTER. Later in the day another Cabinet coun-cil was held, at which General Chanoine, commander of the First Division of the First Army Corps (Department of the North and the Pas-de-Calais), was ap-pointed Minister for War, in succession to General Zurlinden, and Senator Godin, representing French India, was appointed Minister of Public Works, succeeding M. Tillaye. The latter, in transmitting his letter of resignation, is apparently ding for popular favor. He writes as fol-
